

TWO KINDS OF COURAGE

"Be strong and of a good courage. Fear not, nor be afraid of them, for the LORD your God, it is He who goes with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you."

Deuteronomy 31:6, MEV

"There are two kinds of courage, physical and moral, and he who would be a true leader must have both. Both are the products of the character-forming process, of the development of self-control, self-discipline, physical endurance, of knowledge of one's job and, therefore, of confidence. These qualities minimize fear and maximize sound judgment under pressure and—with some of that indispensable stuff called luck—often bring success from seemingly hopeless situations." (Matthew B. Ridgway, "Leadership")

PRAYER

God who sustains me, I am constantly faced with the challenge to remain courageous. Strengthen me so that I may meet the challenge and be resolute against all temptations.

Think of some people who are good in a crisis. What are their characteristics?
